VOLUME XLIX — UKIAH CITY, MENDOCINO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 19, 1917 — NUMBER 15

A "ROOKIE'S" EXPERIENCES

BEING THE STORY OF A UKIAH BOY'S IMPRESSIONS OF ARMY LIFE

(By Lawrence Waugh)

Nogales, Ariz., Jan. 12—As soon as we had gotten our new camp established we settled down to work and soldiering. Of course you realize that soldiering in the engineer corps is not like that of any other part of the service. The engineers are not a fighting unit, although they all have guns and are taught how to use them if attacked. In time of war if the army is making an advance into the enemy's country the engineers are always in the advanced guards, ahead of the main body of troops. This is necessary as the country and routes have to be mapped, old bridges repaired and strengthened, new bridges built, fords marked, sanitary camps to establish, railroads to repair and in many instances military roads built for artillery. Very often all of this has to be done under fire from the enemy. If the army is forced to retreat the engineers are the last troops in the rear guards. In this case the engineers' work is to blow up the bridges, destroy railroad tracks, in fact do anything that would delay the enemy. You will readily see that the engineers' work in time of war is very dangerous, and statistics of the Russ-Jap war show 72 per cent of engineers killed, which is 6 per cent higher than the infantry, which has the next highest percentage killed, and in the European war the engineers have lost more men in proportion than any other branch of service.

I will now give you our daily program for the first two months on the border: First call was blown at 6 a. m., we then had fifteen minutes to get on the inside of our uniforms and get into line for Reveille. after Reveille we had fifteen minutes more to wash and fold our blankets, mess from 6.30 to 6.55 when drill call sounded and we had five minutes to put on our belt and grab our arms and get into line for assembly at 7. At 8. we would come from infantry drill and as soon as we could put our side arms and guns away we went to the picket line, where we would spend a half hour grooming our horses and cleaning the picket line. We would then either go for mounted drill or receive instructions on packing under a cavalry sergeant who was detailed to our company. If we went for mounted drill we would get back at 11, when we would again have to groom until Recall at 11.30. Many comical incidents happened during these drills, for a great many of the boys had never ridden, and it was not an uncommon sight to see one of them leaving the back of a bucking broncho looking like a pin wheel. The afternoons were spent in engineering instructions and fatigue, which was mostly pick and shovel work. At 5 we "showed" and were then off until Taps at 11. This program was followed every day in the week except Saturdays and Sunday. Saturday morning we cleaned our equipments and stood the weekly inspections, Saturday afternoon and Sunday we had to ourselves except for the necessary fatigue about camp.

During all this time we were working as well as drilling, for each morning about twelve men would be detailed to take charge of the different jobs that we were doing. These jobs were building a large warehouse for engineer's equipment, a warehouse for ammunition, a block house, making and repairing roads about Nogales, blasting a powder storage in a solid rock hill, and making a map of the district. Nearly all of this work was done by Mexican labor however, and all that we had to do was to boss and keep the "greasers" at work. This was a very hard undertaking , however, for every time our backs were turned the Mexs were trying to break the shovel handles by leaning upon them.

In the latter part of October we hiked to the famous underground river, the Santa Cruz. The water in this river will flow along for a mile or so and will then suddenly disappear and flow underground for miles when it will again come to the surface. Here we were engaged in a three-day sham battle, with nearly all the troops at Nogales participating. During the battle we built a large barbed-wire entanglement and taught the Idaho Infantry how to dig entrenchments. This battle was very realistic as no one knew just when or where the two armies would meet, but it certainly was a great sight, and one not soon forgotten, to see the cavalry charge and the artillery going into action.

About the middle of November we received a shipment of trench detecting bombs and hand flares to test. These bombs and flares are nearly the same as those that are being used in the European conflict and are what makes night fighting possible. One night before all of the officers of the Nogales District we tested them. Six of us were detailed to shoot the mortars and the rest of the company was sent about a mile and a half away and marched towards us. The bombs make a bright white light and we were able to see the company over a mile away as well as if it had been in the daylight. By elevating the mortars as they neared us we were able to keep a lighted bomb over their heads at all times.

DEATH OF MRS. HASKETT REMOVES PIONEER TEACHER

Mrs. Miranda Barnes Haskett passed away suddenly at her home in this city yesterday morning. She had been about with her usual vigor a few moments before her body was discovered, fully clothed, lying on her bed. The end probably came peacefully to her, as she evidently had lain down to rest for awhile. There was no mark of suffering on her face, and her extreme age makes this hypothesis probable.

She was the pioneer teacher of the county, where she settled in the 60's, and had taught school for over 50 years, until her retirement several years ago. Many a man and woman now grandparents attended her classes, and many whom she taught in the schoolroom have reached old age and passed away.

Mrs. Haskett was a native of Illinois, where she was born Oct. 14, 1837. She had resided in California for 62 years and in California for 54.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

"DON'T," SAYS SCHOER TO ALL MATRIMONIACS

"By all means select a maiden and get married," says C. Schoer, Jr., principal of the Ukiah high school, whose engagement was recently announced, "but for the love of Mike keep it to yourself. Don't tell a soul, or you will be the mark for a multitude of people who will want to sell you everything from a set of furniture to a second-hand baby carriage."

As examples of the variety of merchandise offered him since the announcement of his coming marriage, Schoer quotes a cow, a zither, a player piano, 12 yards of muslin, which the party bought at a bargain and will sell at a slight advance, three second-hand beds, a building lot, a furnished house, an unfurnished house, a baby carriage, a set of horsehair furniture, a 1912 Ford auto, two patchwork quilts, a rag carpet, a contract for cordwood, a wash boiler, and other articles too numerous to mention.

But Schoer went to the mat for the count when the representative of a home-finding society offered him seven orphan children.

DEATH OF MRS. McFARLAND

Mrs. Sarah McFarland passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Randall, in Ukiah, yesterday. The funeral will be held this afternoon from the Christian church. She had resided in Ukiah for the past ten years. The sympathy of many friends is extended the bereaved relatives.

Jas. Todd, a rancher of Caspar, is in town.

COUNTY BUREAU IS PROPOSED

No more will the prospective settler on government land in Mendocino county be at the mercy of the land sharks of the large cities, if a plan advanced by Frank L. Caughey, secretary of the taxpayers' association, at the last session of the supervisors is placed in operation.

It is a well known fact that a number of people have been victimized of late years by these sharks. The prospective settler goes to the operators, who have offices in San Francisco and Sacramento, and there, for a fee, is shown a plat of government land open to entry. He selects a location and then is sent to the operator's correspondent and guide in the section where he desires to locate. The guide in turn shows him a fine tract of land, which he tells him is his location, and he parts with a hundred dollars or so for a location fee. In the course of a few weeks or months he discovers that the land he has been located on has been deeded for years, and that the land he filed on is a chemisal mountain top several miles away, often in another part of the county. Every person thus victimized becomes a knocker for Mendocino county.

Caughey's plan contemplates the making of plats of all the land in the county open for settlement. He states that he will furnish these plats free of charge in connection with his work as secretary of the taxpayers' association. The information as to the formation of the lands and the purposes to which they are adapted is then compiled in a loose leaf form by the secretary of the Ukiah merchants' association, or some other individual, who is allowed a nominal sum each month for taking care of the work connected with the bureau. This information is gathered by personal visits to the lands, and by information gleaned from nearby settlers who are acquainted with it. An advertisement is then inserted in the San Francisco papers stating that all persons wanting correct free information as to government lands in Mendocino county should write the merchants' association. When he makes his wants known the secretary consults his index system and finds whether there is anything available to fill the needs of the prospective settler. If there is he is so informed, and if he wants to visit the land he is referred to a reliable guide, who shall be responsible to the secretary. The settler pays the guide's fee and expenses in advance.

Caughey states that work of this nature would be advertising of the highest value, and as such would be a proper object of an appropriation from the county's advertising fund.

A. N. RAWLES APPOINTED SUPERVISOR IN FIRST

A dispatch to this paper Wednesday from Sacramento states that A. N. Rawles, of Boonville, was appointed by the governor as supervisor of the First district to succeed J. W. Harris, lately deceased.

From a political standpoint the appointment of Mr. Rawles was the only logical course for the Governor, as Mr. Rawles had been endorsed by the state committeemen of this county. The naming of any of the other candidates would have left the local Johnson men in a bad predicament politically. Several of the other candidates had strong backing, however, among them being Chas. Crawford, Dick Williams and I. Fish, and the delay in making the appointment is sufficient index to the quandary the Governor must have been in with so many candidates, and all of them good men, in the field.

Mr. Rawles has made many enemies in his district as the result of a lifetime of aggressive activity in politics there, but, nevertheless, the general opinion, even among them, seems to be that he will do all in his power to make a good official and will act in all matters for what he believes to be the best interests of the district and the county at large.

NEW CASES FILED IN LOCAL COURT

Through Preston & Preston Elizabeth Hannaford has filed a suit for divorce from S. C. Hannaford, alleging desertion and neglect and failure to provide. The couple were married in Ukiah Sept. 10, 1908, and there are no minor children or community property. They separated Jan. 8, 1915.

E. M. Whitney, through Preston & Preston, has filed a suit in foreclosure against A. L. Doble, of Willits. The mortgage involved was given by the defendant to Louis Bilodeau, who has assigned it to the plaintiff. It is given as security for a note dated at Willits, Jan. 15, 1915, and bears interest at 7 per cent.

Through Mannon & Mannon, Allen Davidson has filed a suit in foreclosure against Dorinda Capell, F. Holman, and others who may claim an interest in the property affected. Four mortgages are involved in the suit, the first for $635, two for $500 each and the fourth for $1000.

The city of Fort Bragg, through the city attorney, C. H. McConaughy, has filed a suit against Dave Brandon and others to quiet title to 10½ acres, which comprises the tract known as the city park in Fort Bragg.

ASSEMBLYMAN PETTIS DESIRES PUBLIC OPINION

Assemblyman J. A. Pettis wants to know what the people of Mendocino county desire in connection with the county government bill and the recommendations of the grand jury in regard to the proposed increases in salaries and the provision for deputies in the various offices. He states to the Dispatch that the bill will remain in committee until after the grand jury meets again and will be subject to amendment until after the legislature meets for the second half of its session in March. In the meantime the grand jury will meet again and all who have any sentiment for or against the bill are requested to make their sentiments known to the grand jury, which will make the recommendations. This will give a chance to thresh the matter out to the satisfaction of all.

The proposed increases and the proposed additions of deputies, it should be borne in mind, do not take effect until the beginning of a new term for county officials in January, 1919.

DEMURRER INTERPOSED IN SMITH ARRAIGNMENT

Fred J. Smith, indicted on six counts by the grand jury, came up for his arraignment in the superior court last Wednesday afternoon. He is accused of embezzling funds of the city of Fort Bragg. Smith's attorneys, Weldon & Mockler, interposed a demurrer, alleging among other things that none of the counts specified causes sufficient to constitute a crime, that the allegation that he loaned the public money did not state to whom he loaned it, and that the charges in the indictment were vague and obscure.

Judge White took the matter under advisement and gave District Attorney McCowen until Monday to file his authorities. After that the defense will have several days to answer.

A PLEASANT EVENING

On last Thursday the Epworth League of the M. E. Church, South, held its monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Elma Thomas. After the business of the evening was transacted, the members and their invited guests, who numbered about forty, enjoyed a social evening, singing and playing games until a late hour. Refreshments were served cafeteria style, an innovation that lent much merriment to the evening.

F. M. Piper is here from Point Arena on business.

DEATH OF BUD BANKER A SHOCK TO FRIENDS

It was with the utmost regret that the many friends of Bud Banker in this city learned of his sudden death at Redwood City last Saturday morning. It was not known even by his relatives that he was dangerously ill, and the news of his passing came as lightening from a clear sky.

Sometime ago he went to Redwood City to attend an aviation school with the intention of entering the United States army service. He was making good progress and was ready to make his last trial flight on the morning that he died. On that occasion, it is stated, he went to the aviation field, but complained of feeling ill and was advised to go to his hotel and go to bed. He did so, and a doctor who was summoned saw him comfortably settled in bed and left for a visit to other patients. About half an hour after he left, Bud was discovered dead in bed. The autopsy established the fact that the cause of his death was acute pneumonia. He was home for the holidays, at which time he was suffering from a severe cold, and evidently he fought off his malady after his return to Redwood City until too late.

His father, Monte Banker, and J. W. Eversole went down to get the remains, returning to Ukiah Sunday evening. The funeral was held Monday afternoon, from the M. E. Church, South, Rev. S. P. Pope officiating. The ceremonies at the grave were conducted under the auspices of the Eagles' lodge.

Bud Banker was a young man of much promise. He was steady and upright in his private life and was well liked by a multitude of friends. His career in life was just opening, and that he would have been a successful and noted member of the profession he had adopted is evidenced by the ability and application he displayed in mastering its details. His friends and relatives will feel his loss keenly.

He leaves both parents and three brothers and a sister to mourn his untimely end, and to them the sincere sympathy of a multitude, in which the Dispatch joins, is extended.

TRUSTEES TURN DOWN PETITION TO CLOSE STREET

The board of city trustees met last Monday night, the principal business before the body being the petition to close the street in front of the orphanage. Attorney Theodore Hale represented the petitioners. Owing to the fact that a remonstrance had been filed bearing the signatures of an overwhelming number of the people affected, the board deemed it wise to deny the petition.

The orphanage owns the block across the street from its quarters and desires to join the two properties, hence the petition to close the street.

RECTOR JURY HANGS; NEW TRIAL JAN. 31st

The case of the People vs. William Rector resulted in a hung jury, and the jury was dismissed last Friday afternoon, after deliberating over twenty-four hours. The jurymen stood at one time, 9 for conviction and 3 for acquittal. When the last ballot was taken the proportion was 7 for conviction and 5 for acquittal.

District Attorney McCowen on Monday asked that the case might be tried again the 31st of January, his request being granted.

Rector is out on $2000 bonds pending the trial.

FORT BRAGG CASE TO BE APPEALED

The case of Andreani vs. Carlson, which arose over a mechanic's lien filed against a house constructed recently in Fort Bragg, will be appealed, the necessary papers having been filed yesterday by Attorney M. H. Iversen, who is representing Andreani. The amount involved is a little over $300.

T. F. Cargile, of Caspar, was registered in Ukiah this week.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SUPERVISORS

MINUTES OF THE BOARD AT ITS LAST REGULAR MEETING

January 8, 1917

The Board re-organized by re-electing A. J. Fairbanks Chairman.

S. L. Rea was appointed County Physician and W. B. Coombs sealer of weights and measures.

A deed from L. S. Bechtel for right of way for state highway was accepted by the Board.

Stoddard and Buchanan were granted an extention of time for 90 days to complete the Salmon Creek Road.

The viewers report of the Farley-Bloody Run road was accepted.

January 9, 1917

Bids were opened for entering the names of private owners upon the new ownership books and the following bids were received: Smith Donohoe & Co. $8,800; Ukiah Guarantee Abstract Co., $9,493. The matter was laid over one month.

Bids were opened for furnishing wood for the County Farm and Court Househouse and the bid of Joe Weselsky was found to be the only bid, he bidding $2.90 per tier for oak wood and $7. per cord for 4 ft. pine. The bid was rejected and bids ordered re-advertised.

Changes were made in the boundaries of Hopland Union School District between Hopland and Fountain and Sanel and Fountain Districts.

The report of the Supt. of the Co. Farm and of Horticultural Commissioner were accepted by the Board.

Mrs. Dunfee was granted an allowance of $8 per month.

The matter of the bounderies of Yorkville School District again came up and was argued. It was decided that at the time of the hearing of this same matter on Feb. 8, 1916, due notice as required by law had not been given to the Trustees of said school district, and therefore the Board acted at that time without jurisdiction so it was now ordered that the order of Feb. 8, 1916 be rescinded and the boundaries of the District to remain the same.

On petition regularly presented, Simmerly School District was formed.

Mrs. Reynolds was granted state aid for half orphans in the sum of $12.50 per month.

A permit was granted for the erection of a private telephone line on the Willits road in the third district.

Mrs. P. W. Russe was granted an extra allowance for Dec. and Jan.

January 10, 1917

The petition asking for the calling of a bond election on the good roads question was laid over one month.

The schedule of printing rates of last year was re-adopted by the Board.

It was ordered that E. H. Smith and R. E. Donohoe shall take up the matter of establishing definite boundaries between the counties of Mendocino, Lake and Sonoma and to prepare the necessary data for legislative action to properly establish these bounderies.

The proposition of F. L. Caughey to establish a public land bureau was laid over until the next meeting.

The map of ocean view cemetery subd. No. 1, of Ft. Bragg was approved and referred to the Board of Trustees and the City Engineer of Fort Bragg.

EAGLES PLAN LADIES' NIGHT

The Eagles are preparing for a big time at their Ladies' night, which will be held at a date to be announced later. The Eagles are contemplating a turkey banquet and have appointed as a committee of arrangements J. J. Thomas, E. A. Eversole, D. T. Van Voast, M. A. Sloper and Jas. Elder. Chief Sanford has been appointed publicity man and music committee. The Eagles expect to have their state president, Mortimer Smith, and possibly the grand worthy president, R. B. Goodsell, present on the night.

W. H. Flood, of Mendocino, was called to the county seat on jury duty this week.

UKIAH HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Ross Ryder)

The seventh period was omitted last Friday and the student body poured forth its soul in song. The singing was ably conducted by Prof. P. B. Taylor. However in view of the fact that very few of us can read notes successively or successfully, we would suggest that it would be better to sing songs with which we are somewhat familiar.

Miss Place has charge of the lyceum program which will furnish us forty-five minutes of entertainment this afternoon. The cast has been working on the program and it promises to be very fine.

Zeryl Grant stepped in "where the angels fear to tread" and consequently has a rather sore foot this week. He stepped upon a nail last Friday evening during the mad skating whirl. He had sufficient cause to be excited we admit. During the same evening and at practically the same time Herbert Huntley's right arm got out of place. Hence the sling. If they don't stop making them so beautiful we'll have to leave our right arms home.

S. P. Pope is scheduled to address the student body next Wednesday. Rev. Pope made a very witty and and pleasing address last year and we are looking forward to his talk this time.

A meeting of the board of directors was called Thursday afternon to discuss certain debts along with other important business concerning the student body.

Addison is said to have refraind from writing personal lampoons. I am not Addison, neither is this the seventeenth century. There was no such animal as the malignant brother correspondent in those palmy days When the noted writer of the "Times", Cecil Pope- by name, indulged his passion for sensational announcements and burst forth in the article that appeared in the last issue of that paper, he evidently forgot that the Dispatch is and always shall be the greatest and at the same time forgot that we might reply in kind. We know of a personal incident that happened during the last week that, if in print, would make the best kind of a lampoon. However, the experience which we have gleaned during the years of correspondence, and knowing that in order to indulge in the personal, ladies' names must sometimes be mentioned, we will not relate that event or bare its harrowing details to the gaze of the public. We will be discreet this time, but at the same time let our brother correspondent be warned that in the future he will not escape his weel merited fate so easily.

Madge Devilbiss has been in the missing column during the past week owing to the fact that she is severely ill.

The fourth year Latin class passed a successful examination in Cicero Wednesday afternoon.

Edison Pope, one of the most brilliant examples of the maxim that "love furthers knowledge", became faint-hearted during the recess last Tuesday morning. We judge this by the fact that he fainted and had to go home. He was back in the afternoon, rejuvenated and seems to be as well as ever.

P. B. Taylor has organized a chorus of high school students which is to meet after school every other Wednesday. The object of this chorus is to further the musical in school life. Mr. Taylor is a very competent musical instructor and we should progress rapidly under his guidance.

Miss Muriel Harvey, of the class of 1916, visited school last Tuesday.

Harold Kirk has been absent from school during the past week, cause unknown.

Mr. Schoer has subscribed for the Sacramento Union and the Sacramento Bee in order that the U. S. history class may keep up with the intricate happenings of the state legislature.

The science and invention and capital and labor sections of the U. S. history class will furnish reports for today's recitation.

The fourth year English class passed a very successful examination in Macaulay's Essay on Addison during the first part of the week. The class has now taken up Burke's Speech on Conciliation.

Mrs. Porterfield kindly offered to add to the teachers' library any books which the teachers of this high school thought necessary that their pupils should read. It is thought that a list will be made in the near future and presented to Mrs. Porterfield, for there are several books that should be read in connection with the various classes that cannot be obtained at the public library.

We wonder what is the matter with the Press? It is so full of the valuable news of the county that it cannot furnish a half column a week to the high school correspondence. We admit that for the most part such news is dry and uninteresting, but once in a while there is something that comes up, which if read by the parents of students in the high school might clear up difficulties. There is one thing that stands out about the Dispatch that cannot be gainsaid. No matter how voluminous the high school notes might be, no matter how unessential or uninteresting they might appear to the editor, never yet, within the period of my writing, has he curtailed anything that I have written, or left out the notes, unless circumstances made their printing absolutely impossible.

The senior class is planning to have a party at the home of Cecil Pope this evening. That class has begun to realize that the time has come for them to get together, if they ever wish to do so in their high school career. There are only five months of school left, and several parties have been planned for that time.

Harold LaPorte, the popular young plainer, is planning a party tonight for a few of his intimate friends. This is to be the second party of a series commenced by Miss Veta White, and more are said to be forthcoming in the near future.

Clifford Beinap, a freshman in this high school, has moved to Oroville, and consequently has dropped out of this school. We know a young freshman girl whose eyes and heart are sad because of the parting.

The skating club held a most enjoyable session last Friday evening. A full crowd were out, and although we did not glide to the strains of harmonious music, nevertheless we had a fair time.

REDWOOD VALLEY'S QUOTA OF INTERESTING NEWS

Redwood Valley, Jan. 17—Jim Howard has purchased a new automobile.

Dudley Cable was suddenly called to southern California last week by receiving word that his son-in-law suffered an accident.

An Italian family has leased the E. R. Wilkinson place and took possession.

The Improvement club met at the Yates cottage Saturday night. Some sixteen men were present. It was decided to form a farm loan association here so that the farmers of this vicinity might take advantage of Uncle Sam's new rural credit law. There was an interesting discussion among those present on what products are best suited to our soil and climate.

The social club meets Saturday night. Mrs. Riggs will have charge of the meeting.

Miss Nora Chaffee departed for Oakland last Saturday. Her Calpella friends gave her a farewell party Thursday night, and Friday afternoon Mrs. Hetrick gave her a party.

Andrew Ekdahl and Miss Laura Ekdahl were called East last week by the sudden death of Mrs. Andrew Ekdahl at Lindstrom, Minnesota.

The Finnish colony received a shipment of alfalfa hay from Rippon last week.

George Magneson and Miss Mildred Ekdahl returned last week from an auto trip to the San Joaquin valley.

The Thimble Bee met with Mrs. Woolley last Thursday and will meet with Mrs. Brines this week.

Harry Maze has had a crew busy working on the approach to the new highway bridge.

The bottom almost dropped out of the thermometer during the week. It dropped to 16 degrees two mornings, and capered around 20 degrees almost every morning. Wednesday morning it was 14 degrees. Some report temperatures as low as 10 degrees. The river at the head of the valley was frozen over Wednesday morning.

B. A. Brown has returned home after an extended visit in San Francisco.

J. R. Jameson and wife and Mrs. F. O. Strong motored out to Redwood Sunday afternoon and visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jameson.

Kurt Schamber and Gus Page are circulating a petition through the valley asking for the removal of the Indian reservation.

The home of Mr. Wm. Hetrick, on the state highway, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering on Friday afternoon, January 12th, the occasion being in honor of Miss Nora Chaffee, who left Saturday morning for Oakland. The hostess served dainty refreshments. A very pleasant time was had by those present, and the ladies, on departing, wished Miss Chaffee much prosperity in her new home.

The San Francisco papers are announcing the engagement of Roy Woodhead, of Branscomb, this county, and Miss Frances Stewart, of San Francisco.

Ed Roth, of Willits, was a Ukiah visitor the first of the week.

Attorney Frank Taft came down from Willits on business last Monday.

A TRIBUTE TO DAN HEGER

As the children trooped out of the old grammar school in Ukiah at the close of a day in the late 70's, laughing, shoving, hustling, sparring, tagging and gleefully bidding "good nights" as only care-free youth can, the older fellows roughly handled in good natured fashion one of their comrades, after a boy's way. The slender, lovable youth in question, smiled kindly in return, and seemed to turn the tide of several against one with well directed diplomacy and honest protest, rather than physical strenuousness. On, the horde gleefully passed, under the arms of the motherly old oak where the girls of the class were, girl-fashion, affectionately bidding each other the day's adieus, and they, too, fell into the boys' mild bickerings until one "tomboy" girl as she was generally known in those care free days, turned the good natured ridicule to herself by monopolizing in a possessory attitude the attentions of the favorite youth the boys sought to tantalize. The tide of ridicule all turned her way now, and as the boisterous throng wended its homeward way. "Goodnight, tom-boy", sang Lafayette Van Dusen, John Orr, and a happy band of boys now Mendocino's men in many places. And the girls—"Good night, Dan", came the parting from modest Sallie Townsend, happy Vic McGarvey and pretty Nellie Forse. "Good night, Dan", said the "tom-boy girl", when her street came, and so the night came on and all was still about the school house, until the joyous chatter of the children again on the happy morrow.

Then the years began and the boy grew to manhood. Some of these years were passed in Ukiah, where his brothers studied, worked, grew up and went out into the world. His sisters, too, respected and beloved, did likewise. And his father and mother, rich in the qualities with which they had so liberally endowed their children, did as yours and mine have done, labored on faithfully through the years, loving their children and being loved by them, and by none more truly, respectfully and devotedly than Dan, the subject of this sketch.

Presently there came to Ukiah the Dowlings, to live among you, respected and beloved, and to lay by rich memories of their life spent among you, like those you retain of them, inspired by their and your earnestness, honesty and faithfulness.

And then you will remember how Dan, after concentrated effort all his own, started a business here in the big metropolis, which thrived, prospered and grew because it was founded on that rock of strength on which he had always stood, grounded in honesty, truth and fidelity. When he and Anna Dowling were married he continued to thrive and grow, because Anna and Dan went hand in hand. Marriage is ever God's holiest and sweetest bond, when two people bear its yoke as devotedly and affectionately as Mr. and Mrs. Heger bore it. So, often again did Ukiah's school girl, grown with Dan into years of maturity, say "Good night, Dan", frequently at his family's hospitable home, sometimes as their automobile dropped her at her own humble home. The business world knew this Ukiah boy of years gone by from Paris to his home in San Francisco, and from here to New York and Philadelphia. Traveled as he was and wealthy in experience and business success, he never forgot his less successful friends. One of the cherished memories of his old schoolmate will be that of meeting him and his beloved wife and son in their machine the night after their arrival here from one of their trips abroad, when they insisted that she should be one of their party to rejoice over their safe home coming, and as Dan said, "to ride about and admire his own San Francisco, which he declared was as beautiful as any city in all his long tour of the world. This decision was only the growth of the rich, unselfish character of the Ukiah school fellow of the late 70's; maturity ever enrichened his kindly sense of justice, honesty and faithfulness.

Ah, it is a wealthy store of memories your old play-fellow has of you Daniel Charles Heger, as she says this last "good night". How your goodness, kindness, charity and love grew with the years! If your wife, your son, your venerable parents and all your relatives miss you more than words can tell, while the sorrow of this parting almost stills their own hearts, many more will miss you, too. Your friends who loved you for your fine traits, and those pitiable ones to whom your generous charity was such a sacred boon.

"Good night, Dan", and the morrow, this time "the eye hath not seen, and the ear hath not heard" its glories that God hath prepared, and we know that your face bears that blessed and peaceful radiance now, so richly have you earned Heaven's best.

NEWS OF WEEK AT GUALALA

Gualala, Jan. 16—We are having the most delightful weather, only very cold of nights, the ground being very well covered with frost. Jack Frost is surely doing his work this winter in a regular Eastern fashion. Such freezing is unusual for our section of the coast.

Frank O'Brien, of Point Arena, with several others, motored as far as Gualala the 9th.

Mrs. Frank Briones, of Gualala, spent the 9th with Mrs. J. C. Briones at Bourn's Landing.

Mrs. Atley Bowles and family left for Point Arena last week to visit relatives in that town, leaving "hubby" to be chief cook, housekeeper, etc., which no doubt he will enjoy, as most men like to cook.

John Styrus, of Gualala, was very unfortunate in losing a very valuable cow last week by falling in a hole not far from home. After being in the icy water three days she was discovered still alive. Neighbors lifted her out and hauled her home. She was so thoroughly chilled from lying in the water that she died that night.

Mrs. J. S. Lampkin, Charles, and grandson, Floyd, spent the 7th at Loma Vista ranch and were entertained very pleasantly by Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Last week Rev. D. Monroe was visiting the sick in our neighborhood and calling in to give a good word of greeting to others along the way, remaining with the Smiths for the night. Mr. Monroe is always a welcome visitor in our community.

Since my last letter there has been a change in the timber sale mentioned. The first party in some way failed to make the bargain, so Mr. Johnson bought the timber from Mr. Keene and expects soon to put in some tie makers.

Arthur Johnson returned home last week after several months spent at Annapolis.

A party was given at Iverson's Landing Saturday evening. Arthur and Harry Johnson were the only ones from our neighborhood that attended.

Mrs. J. C. Briones, of Bourns' Landing, spent two days with her friend, Mrs. Queen, of Fish Rock.

Mrs. Smith was making her regular New Year's calls the first week of the new year, wishing each neighbor a happy and prosperous new year. A word of cheer and good will means much to us in our sparsely settled community, and costs so little. Would that more of us would take up new resolutions for 1917 and try scattering good and cheery seed along the pathway of others.

Mrs. J .S. Lampkin and son, Chas., were entertained by Mrs. J. C. Briones in her home the 14th and enjoyed the day very much. After a very nice dinner they walked up to Mr. Keen's and enjoyed a pleasant call with these new neighbors. Mrs. Briones accompanied them.

I wonder how many in our county witnessed the total eclipse of the moon last week. aarcka moon last week. The night was beautifully clear giving a fine view of the moon as she entered into the shadow, a grand sigh, which lasted for some hours. Watch for more for 1917 has promised several.

Joe Briones was called to Stewart's Point the 13th to splice wire for Mr. Richardson, being gone two days. Joseph is an expert in this line, and there are not many able to do work of this kind.

Jack Caylor, our popular chauffeur of Point Arena, has been hauling hay on a heavy auto the last week to Gualala. This speaks well for our coast roads in mid-winter.

CONSIDER PLAN TO MEET FEDERAL DEFICIT

ADDITIONAL REVENUE AMOUNTING TO $370,000,000 MUST BE RAISED

Washington, Dec. 27.—Issuance of $125,000,000 Panama Canal bonds , increased income and estate taxes, additional taxes on whiskey, beer, cigarettes and bottled waters and higher tariff duties on coffee and tea are proposed in a tentative program to be considered by the House Ways and Means Committee when it begins framing revenue legislation to meet the prospective deficit of $370,00,000 at the end of the next fiscal year. The Committee will undertake its task soon after Congress reconvenes next week.

Wilson Opposes Bonds

President Wilson is understood to oppose bond issues except for extraordinary emergencies. To square with this view, Democratic leaders in the House propose to put the issue of the Panama Canal bonds directly upon the military expenditures on account of Mexico.

Clark Wants Extra Session

Speaker Clark believes that an extra session will be necessary to consider revenue measures, unless it is possible to meet the deficit by a bond issue and income tax increases. Other Democrats hope, however, that the problem can be solved by pressing through at the short session a complete program. Some of the tax increases proposed are $1.25 instead of $1.10 per gallon on whiskey; $2 instead of $1.70 per barrel on beer, and a sufficient increase on cigarettes to bring it from $15,000,000 to $18,000,000.

WILSON'S OFFICIAL PLURALITY 568,822

PRESIDENT RECEIVED 9,116,296 AND HUGHES 8,547,474 VOTES IN LAST ELECTION

NEW YORK, December 27.—Complete official returns on the Presidential election show that Woodrow Wilson received 9,116,296 votes and Charles E. Hughes 8,547,474, a plurality of 568,822 for Wilson. In 1912, Wilson, Democrat, received 6,293,019; Taft, Republican, 3,484,956; Roosvelt, Progressive, 4,119,507.

The total popular votes for all candidates was 18, 638,8"1 as against 15,045,032 in 1912. This is an increase of 3,593,549, accounted for by the increased population, the women's vote in the new suffrage States and the increased interest in the campaign.

SPRAYING WILL ABOLISH PEAR SCAB DISEASE

"Abolish the unnecessary disease of 'Pear Scab'!" says the University of California to the fruit growers of the State.

There's no need of letting the surface of California pears be blotched and undurated with this preventable disease. There is an unusual prevalence of "pear scab" in Californa during the past year,yet it may readily be checked. The University tells how, on a circular on "Control of Pear Scab," written by Ralph E. Smith, Professor of Plant Pathology, and obtainable free by writing to the College of Agriculture at Berkeley. This is the method:

Plow under dead leaves as thoroughly as possible.

Spray with Bordeaux Mixture twice while the buds are unfolding; first when the leaf buds are just opening ; second, a week or ten days later, just before the individual blossoms open. The first spraying is the more important, but both should be given.

In large orchards, start in time, but after the buds have begun to unfold, because spraying after the blossom buds are well out will do little good, especially with Bartlett pears.

An extra precaution is to spray the third time, mixing the first lead arsenate codling-moth spray with Bordeaux Mixture instead of plain water.

Good equipment and high pressure should be used, and the trees covered thoroughly, especially the twigs and buds.

Bordeaux Mixture is made by dissolving twenty pounds of bluestone, slacking twenty-five pounds of quicklime in a separate vessel straining the bluestone into the spray tank and filling it half full or more with water, and then straining in the lime, mixed with the rest of the water.(200 gallons is the total water used.) The materials should always be well diluted before mixing them together.

If a third spraying is to be used of lead arsenate combined with Bordeaux Mixture, the amounts of bluestone and lime may be reduced to fifteen and twenty pounds respectively.

Mr. Burge, steward at the state hospital, returned yesterday from a short visit at Sacramento.

Work is progressing very rapidly on the new ward in the administration building, and we are promised a model ward in the near future.

Work will soon be commenced on the second story addition to D ward cottage, and will give the female department a bit of much needed room.

Mr. Boling and wife have returned from Ukiah to Talmage, and are now living in the old Hoffman house here.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lucy have also moved to Talmage and are stopping with Mr. Boling.

Mr. Stewart, formerly of Fort Steilacoom, Wash., has accepted a position at the hospital, and he and Mrs. Stewart are rooming with Mr. and Mrs. Boling.

Mr. and Mrs. MacQuiddy have left the employ of the state and are now en route to Mrs. MacQuiddy's home in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Hill, nightwatch on Ward 4, has resigned his position and left on the 16th for his home in Michigan.

A very successful dance was held by the employees' social club at the assembly hall of the state hospital last evening. Everyone had a splendid time.

It is reported by the hospital's crack sprinters that the water at the asylum dam is frozen to the thickness of eighteen inches. Anyway it has been some freeze.

POINT ARENA

Point Arena, Jan. 16—Miss Gertrude Sherwood left on the steamer Saturday for San Francisco, where she will undergo medical treatment.

Bob Hamilton and family have returned from Boulder Creek.

Ruby Bishop, Helen Holliday and Irma Roper left Saturday for Berkeley where they will continue their study at the University.

John Granole had a paralysis stroke Thursday night.

The Point Arena creamery building is being overhauled and put in condition for a cheese factory. C. A. Marlett is doing the carpenter work, assisted by Joe Sherwood.

Charley Lancherio, known as Captain Charley, died at the rancheria last week of old age.

Miss Rena Dougherty left Saturday by steamer for San Francisco, where she will visit her aunt.

Mrs. Hagreen is suffering from an attack of erysipelas.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Duesich have returned from a visit in Sonoma county.

The Goodyear Redwood Company have sold out their store to F. H. Warren and J. W. Pellascio. They will vacate the first of March.

NOTES FROM CORRESPONDENT AT ISLAND MOUNTAIN

Jan. 7, 1917—The snow, which began falling Dec. 21, has begun to melt and we have sunshine once more.

Lewis Hale is getting up hogs for sale.

Mrs. Childs has returned from her visit to San Francisco, where she spent more than a week with friends.

Mr. Meyer sold his turkeys at 30 cents and 28 cents a pound, which was a good price. Others will try raising turkeys this year.

Mr. Overhouser reports only four inches of snow at his home.

The grass is growing fine, at this rate the cattle will soon begin to gain

Mrs. Meyers, Lake Mountain post mistress is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hostettler.

Mr. Childs is faithfully carrying the mail, snow or rain.

Mr. Gettes is reported on the sick list.

We are all glad to hear that young Wallace's health is improving.

The climate is not so severe on Lake Mountain as the stock have never failed to find plenty of feed around Mr. Abbot's place.

Wm. Cox and wife returned Wednesday evening from San Francisco, where Mr. Cox submitted to an operation for the purpose of removing a growth in his nose.

MASONS HOLD INSTALLATION

LARGE CROWD ATTEND JOINT INSTALLATION AND BANQUET

Last Friday evening a joint installation of officers was held by Abell Lodge No. 146, F. & A. M., and Ukiah Chapter No. 53, R. A. M., at Masonic hall in this city. The affair was invitational and was attended by almost two hundred Masons and ladies.

An elaborate banquet was served at Odd Fellows' hall at 7 o'clock p. m., after which the banqueters adjourned to the Masonic hall where the installation ceremonies took place.

Several vocal and instrumental numbers were rendered and much enjoyed by the members and guests. Among the numbers were: Male quartet composed of Messrs. W. S. and Will Van Dyke, Geo. Anderson and Rob Thomas; mixed quartet, Peggy Lynch, Catherine Thomas, W. S. Van Dyke and Rob Thomas; piano solo, Fred Rothchild; violin solo, Will Van Dyke; vocal solo, Peggy Lynch.

Retiring Master P. W. Handy received a pleasant surprise when Wm. Bromley, with appropriate remarks, presented him with a jewel in behalf of the lodge.

The following officers for the ensuing year were installed for Abell Lodge by Installing Officer P. W. Handy:

W. M., Neil M. Anker; S. W., Hubert J. Wellman; J. W., Fred M. McKenzie; treasurer, J. L. McCracken; secretary, Wm. Bromley; marshal, P. W. Handy; S. D., Geo. F. Kohler; J. D., J. J. Murphey; S. S., Ray O. Foster; J. S., Eugene F. McGinn; tyler, W. H. Chessall.

Installing Officer Geo. W. Stout installed the following officers for Ukiah Chapter, R. A. M.:

High Priest, W. S. Van Dyke; King, William Finney; Scribe, Percy W. Handy; treasurer, Wm. Bromley; secretary, C. U. White; Captain of the Host, Geo. W. Stout; Principal Sojourner, Charles M. Mannon; Royal Arch Captain, J. L. McCracken; Master Third Veil, J. B. Palmer; Master Second Veil, J. R. Mathews; Master First Veil, Arch McGimsey; Sentinel, W. I. Bailey.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Corner North Oak and West Smith streets, Pastor, Rev. D. Catchpole.

Service—Sunday School at 9:45; public worship at 11 and 7:30; B. Y. P. U. at 6:30.

Evening sermon on "The Ministry of Jesus" will be illustrated with lime light views.

Special music. All are invited.

The members of the choir of the Baptist church and their families spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn last Monday evening. The party was taken out to the reservation by Mr. Grant. The evening was spent in games and a general good time. After refreshments were served the company returned, reaching the city near the midnight hour.

The locust trees that adorned the front of the Baptist property have been removed and walnut trees have been planted to take their place. A cement sidewalk has been laid along the side of the Baptist parsonage and other improvements are being made which gives a much better appearance to the property.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

Hopland, Calif., Jan. 9, 1917.

The All-wise Providence having seen fit to remove from our midst and deliberations our fellow-member and associate, J. W. Harris, we extend to the widow and family our heartfelt sympathy. We realize that words are weak comforters, but we hope they will show our willingness to help you bear your affliction.

Our Joe Harris is gone, but we will not forget him. He was ambitious for our new high school and often expressed the hope that it would become an important element in the development of this community. He was proud to be one of its supporters and enthusiastic promoters. We shall miss his wise judgment and active interest in our deliberations. The influence of his work and words will remain a blessing to this entire community for years to come.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow, and a copy be sent to the press of Ukiah.

C. L. CRAWFORD, President.
T. L. HIATT, Secretary.
CHAS. E. BLALACK.

STANDLEY LADS TRAP BEARS AND PANTHER

The Hardy correspondent of the Fort Bragg Advocate, writing under date of Jan. 15th, says:

Jack and Randolph Standley, age 10 and 12 years, who live at the mouth of Cottoneva Creek, are making a remarkable trapping record this winter for lads so young.

In addition to numerous wild cats, coons and skunks, they have trapped two large bear and a big female panther.

The morning after the first bear was encountered the boys were accompanied by their father, and the animal was quickly dispatched. A few days later the lads were alone when Bruin No. 2 was encountered, Both bears were fat and fine eating.

In making their rounds of their traps the same week, they discovered that one of their No. 2 traps had been sprung and was missing. In following the trail for a quarter of a mile they found that the large redwood limb, used as an anchor, had caught under a log and the chain had broken.

Two days later the hound "Rock" of the Ross stock dogs at Cleone was put on the trail, and after a 3 hours' run treed the panther, which was shot by the boys. They had to drag their prize three miles through the woods to the road.

A $20 bounty is now paid for panthers.

UNUSUAL COLD SPELL VISITS MENDOCINO COUNTY

The easterner is prone to say that to a Californian all California weather is unusual. But it is no joke to say that the cold spell the past two weeks is most certainly unusual, not because it has been extremely cold, but because it has continued cold for so long. This is the time of the year when we are accustomed to get the largest part of our annual 30 to 60 inches of rain, but the rainfall is only about two thirds of what it was last season at this time, and last season was an unusually dry one at that. For nearly two weeks now we have had clear weather without a drop of rain, and low temperatures ranging all the way from 26 degrees down to 16, which is the lowest, and which was registered Thursday morning. Reports of similar conditions come from all over northern California. Sonoma county and the coast section of this county have suffered as well as the more northerly and interior sections. Fort Bragg reports a minimum of 26, Albion 14, and the Union Lumber Company's ranch on the Noyo 5 above zero, according to the Fort Bragg Advocate.

DENOMINATIONAL SERMONS

Sunday evenings at the Presbyterian church.

Beginning next Sunday evening, the pastor of the Presbyterian church will preach a series of sermons in the various religious denominations—the Methodist, the Baptist, the Presbyterian, etc.

The object of these sermons will be to set forth the contribution which each of these churches has made to our common Christianity, and to emphasize the points of unity that exist in the worship and belief of them all.

The first of these addresses, on next Sunday evening, will be of an introductory character. The subject will be, "Points of Unity, or What We All Believe."

PEACE OFFICERS NOT ENTITLED TO REWARDS

Sacramento, Jan. 17.—A duly appointed or elected and qualified peace officer is not entitled to reward offered for the apprehension of any offender, according to an opinion by Attorney-General U. S. Webb at the instance of the State Board of Control. Webb was asked if the board had a right to pay F. M. Roundtree, of Mendocino county, $50 offered for the capture of Frank Jennings, Folsom convict, who escaped from a highway gang of prisoners working in that county.

DEATH OF OPHELIA ATTERBURY

Dr. T. F. Hudson was summoned to Fruitvale last Monday on account of the death of his niece, Miss Ophelia Atterbury, who passed away Sunday evening at 10 o'clock. The remains were cremated Wednesday.

Miss Atterbury was well known here, where she had visited at the Hudson home. She was a ward of Mr. Hudson during her minority. She leaves an aged mother.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends who extended their sympathy during the loss of our beloved son and brother.

WILLITS

Willits, Jan. 18—For the past week we have been having about the coldest weather known here. Tuesday morning the government thermometer kept by the State Highway Commission, registered 9 degrees above zero. Water pipes all over town were frozen and so many of them burst that it kept all of our plumbers busy making repairs. This is the only damage done here as we do not make any pretensions of living in a land of "sunshine and flowers" and our citrus products are all imported. The stockmen tell us that the stock are looking very well, considering what they have to contend with, and the loss may not be so large after all.

The largest freight train ever brought here came in Tuesday night from Eureka. There were 56 cars and was brought from Eureka as a double header. Here the train was split in two and it took five engines to take it over the ridge.

The mill at Northwestern started up again the first of the week. It was closed for two weeks so that the machinery could be overhauled and the pond cleaned.

Tuesday night the band boys were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Heap. After a sumptuous feed their leader, Jack Keller, was presented with a handsome gold medal on behalf of the boys. Jack has been the leader of our band on and off for the past ten years and the boys thought it was about time to show him that his services were appreciated.

The Grand hotel is being remodeled preparatory to the change which will take place next week. Mr. Vancleemput has leased the Grand and will close the Central.

A daughter was born to the wife of Clyde Brooks, January 11th.

A daughter was born to the wife of Henry Harms on the 12th.

These bombs are held in the air by a parachute which unfolds when the bomb explodes, and each bomb burns one minute before going suddenly out. The flares are thrown by hand and are only used for close action, or to light the space between two trenches.

By the middle of November the nights were very cold, and we suffered a great deal from cold as we had no stoves in our tents, and not enough blankets. After kicking about two weeks we got stoves for the tents, which made it much better, but we still felt the cold in early morning. This we had to contend with until the 12th of December when we got our winter quarters.

All during November there was a steady stream of troop trains leaving Nogales carrying the guardsmen back home. I often stood along the track and watched the trains pulling out with their noisy cargoes and wished that I too, might be able to go home. It was not so bad to see the boys from other states go home, but when the California boys began to leave it sure did make us awful homesick.

As the holiday season began to draw near all of the guardsmen began to look forward to being home with their friends and relations. All of the California boys were home for Thanksgiving except the Field Artillery and us, and now we are the only ones left, in fact our company is the only National Guards that the state can claim, as all other organizations refused to take the new oath upon their return to California.

In my next letter I shall tell you of the holiday season upon the border.

"SHAT."

COSMOS CLUB PLANS BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT

The members of the Cosmos Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. R. Mathews last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Deering assisted the hostess. After the business session, Mrs. Flowers read a paper on "The Mississippi Valley and Its Settlement", which was very interesting and instructive, and the members responded to roll call with negro stories.

During the social hour the hostess served delicious cake and coffee.

Besides the literary and social feature, this club is doing a great deal of philanthropic work.

About twenty pairs of shoes, stockings and rubbers have been furnished to school children who are unable to buy them, and as our truant officer is making an effort to increase the attendance of our school and see that every child receives the benefit of what education offers them, this club deserves the support of every one in their effort to secure shoes for these children. They are planning a Southern evening at the Victory theatre Monday, January 29th; so let every one be ready with their 25 cents and fill the theatre to overflowing.

CULTUS CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. FREDA JOSEPH

A large membership of the Cultus Club met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Freda Joseph, Dr. Lena Lee Hansen assisting as hostess.

The hour for routine business passed with nothing unusual to distinguish it.

Following, a paper was read by Mrs. Minnie Jamison upon the topic, "How Can We Help Our Boys and Girls to Become More Purposeful and Self Reliant?" Mrs. Jamison's high standard of excellence was fully reached in the treatment of this subject.

A book review of "The Harbor", by Earnest Poole, was presented by Mrs. Lucy Seawell. Mrs. Seawell does things of this sort delightfully and with discrimination. There is a pervading enthusiasm in her work which is highly infectious. The ladies are eager to read the volume, which, as yet, is apparently little known here.

A tasteful, light supper was then announced. The guests remained long over the perfectly appointed tables. The evening was in every way a success.

ROUND VALLEY

Covelo, Jan. 18—Cold weather still prevails in Round valley. Most of the snow which fell three weeks ago still remains on the ground.

High school began Monday, with a full attendance.

Measles here about run their course, and we hope nothing else comes this way to disturb our work.

Mrs. Montague, who has been very ill, is now able to be up, gaining very rapidly the use of her arm.

Rev. Boynton, of the Baptist church, who has been absent from his charge a couple of months, returned a few days ago.

Miss Helen Hogshead spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Davie Johnson of Poor Man's valley. She reported a most enjoyable day and a splendid turkey dinner. Miss Hogshead took her departure Sunday morning for Mendocino, where she is teaching in the high school.

Claud Gibson went to the city last week to consult his physician in regard to his health.

Mrs. Fred Griffith and two children of Ferndale left for their home Sunday after spending three weeks with Mrs. Griffith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lovell.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Conner have moved out to the Leavitt Range, six miles beyond Dos Rios. This ranch was formerly owned by the Beard Brothers.

There seems to be a most fatal disease prevalent among the fowls here, Mrs. Chas. Hemenway having lost twenty-six in less than twelve hours. They are attacked seemingly very suddenly, as they fall and die without much struggle. Any information on this subject would be gladly received.

Miss Lilly Morrison returned to Stanford last week, and Miss Inice Ells to San Jose Normal.

The firm of Long & Biggar have dissolved. The business now is under the name of Long, Mr. Biggar having retired. Mr. Biggar's many friends will be sorry to lose him from behind the counter, but wish for the new firm a continuance of the good luck.

SOUTHERN EVENING ENJOYED BY KINGSLEY CHAPTER

Kingsley Chapter No. 58, O. E. S. held an initiation last Monday evening, and at the close of the ceremonies the members were entertained with vocal selections by W. S. Van Dyke, recitations by Mrs. Ray Foster, a piano duet by Misses Ruth Thomas and Minnie Hart and a reading by Mrs. Bernhard.

The program was followed by the advent of "darkies" with cakes, coffee and fruit which were served cafateria style. After luncheon the members gathered around the piano and rendered a number of old melodies, bringing to a close a very enjoyable evening.

FORT BRAGG NOTES

(Advocate)

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Marshall, of Wendling, were proud to announce the birth of twins at their home Dec. 24th. Mother and babes are doing nicely.

A son was born to the wife of C. L. Patten, in Eureka, Jan. 11th. Mrs. Patten was formerly Miss Martha Barton, of Albion.

Mrs. Archie Fault, of Cleone, had two ribs broken Sunday night when an auto driven by Julius Aho went over the north Pudding creek grade. The accident occurred in attempting to pass a team which was also going up the coast. The car rolled down the bank a distance of about twenty feet.

Austin Blair, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus C. Blair, of De Haven, died in Fort Bragg yesterday afternoon, following an operation for carcinoma when his right arm was amputated at the shoulder. He was a sterling young man of the north coast with a host of friends who will greatly regret his demise.

Miss Hilda White arrived here from Ukiah Sunday evening, and will reside here in the future. She has accepted a position in the Union Lumber Company's office, made vacant by the resignation of Miss Lula Turner.

An eight-pound girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young, at Elk, Sunday morning. Mother and child are getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Banker went to Ukiah Sunday to attend the funeral of the late Bud Banker.

George Berryhill has been receiving congratulations over the arrival of the thirteenth child at his home. The little miss came on the 12th inst. only missing the 13th day by one count.

Surrounded by all of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Berryhill, two of Fort Bragg's esteemed pioneers, celebrated their 25th weding anniversary Thursday at their home in this city.

The nights seem brighter and there is less sleep in the daytime for Patrolman George Brown of late. It's all because a bouncing baby boy arrived at his home Sunday.

Born—To the wife of V. Gianini, of Wendling, a 13½ pound son.

HAACKE CASE ON TRIAL

The case of the People vs. Wm. Haacke, charged with selling liquor in contravention of the law, went to trial in the superior court yesterday. All the witnesses had been examined last night with the exception of the expert for the prosecution. The case will go to the jury today.

R. W. Sullivan, a well known resident of the Albion section, was in town this week on business at the courthouse.

Stung! Never Again—

A MAN OUGHT NOT TO BE SHOT OR PUT IN AN INSANE ASYLUM BECAUSE HE SENDS AWAY TO A CATALOG HOUSE FOR HIS HARDWARE. ELABORATE FIXTURES FOR NEW SAVINGS BANK BLDG.

A crew of men will arrive here Monday to begin the installation of the new fixtures in the Savings Bank of Mendocino County' new building. It is said these new fixtures are very elaborate and the interior of the bank will present quite a handsome appearance when fitted up.

JUDGE ROACH HERE

Judge and Mrs. Geo. M. Roach, of Westport, are in Ukiah in connection with the trial of the case of the People vs. Haacke. Judge Roach dispenses justice on the coast from Westport north to the county line and his court has had some very important matters to settle from that big territory, which is as large as some counties.

STOLE HORSE AND BUGGY

Edward Mitting is in county jail awaiting trial on a charge of larceny. He stole a horse and buggy from Colburn, a liveryman of Caspar, and started for Humboldt county. Sheriff Byrnes intercepted him Tuesday moring at Westport.
